

Two measured step counts, five seeds each. Lines only pair the same seed; nothing is measured between the points.

